KUDOS

Kudos to all of the teachers. I had a great time meeting individually with all of you this past week. Thank you for all your hard work in completing your Professional Growth Goals. With all the challenges, transitions and new learning you have all persevered and have kept the student's at the forefront. A HUGE round of applause to Maya Holland in coordinating Phase II of CELDT testing and putting in extra hours to ensure a smooth roll out. Thank you to Maritza Osuna, Adela Chavez and Ava Castillo for all the hard work that you do in the cafeteria for our students. Kudos to our Pupil Supervisors for ensuring student safety during recess. Thank you to our amazing Leadership Team. Kudos to Cristina Hutton, Eugene Mosqueda and Jorge De Leon and all teachers involved in the IEP process. You all shared valuable information and the parents were very appreciative for all the effort and attention that you give to their child.

APP OF THE WEEK: STICK PICK

You can use Stick Pick as a random name generator, but the true power of Stick Pick is its ability to display "question stems" that are uniquely tied to each learner's cognitive or English language ability level. You can even track your students' performance! Check it out.

FOCUS OF THE WEEK: STAND AND DELIVER

Stand and Deliver is an effective strategy to help student express their ideas, gain confidence and to practice their oral communication skills. This strategy helps students be loud and proud and to take ownership of their own learning.

HIGHLIGHTS/PBIS

In the Spotlight

PBIS Students had so much fun at our second Fun Friday. Activities included crafts, face painting, parachute and many more. Our new Paw Panther Mascot stole the show and was a big hit amongst the students. The Character Education class had less than 15 students which means that they are on the right track and are making positive choices. Thank you teachers for rewarding their amazing behavior with Paw Bucks.

Parent University Thank you to Maya Holland and Aurora Ortega for hosting Parent University. It was great to see that Hartnell representatives came out to inform the parents of the great opportunities that Hartnell College has to offer.

Paw Bucks Student's Paw Bucks at work!
