KUDOS

Thank you teachers for the amazing instruction this week. I enjoy coming into all of your classes to see what you all do best-INSPIRE. Kudos to Maya Holland for helping to cover classes when a sub was not available. Kudos to Aurora Ortega for organizing our Paw Store and for helping our parents feel welcomed. Kudos to our parents for helping with the cookie dough distribution. Kudos to all teachers who turned in their conference schedules. Kudos to Aurora Ortega, Olga Mares and the parents for organizing the Book Fair. Kudos to all teachers who finished the NWEA Testing.

PBIS

Referrals have been on the decline. Great job staff for discussing classroom expectations with your class. Continue to also remind your students of the playground expectations and to use respect when communicating with our pupil supervisors. A PBIS meeting will take place on Nov. 17 and will take place at the Soledad High School Mission Room. I look forward to bringing back new information to help support and implement PBIS to its fullest.
