KUDOS

A BIG Applause to all Teachers for holding productive PLC's-you all are one of a kind. Kudos to Maya Holland for taking classes when a sub is not available. Thank you to our awesome pupil supervisors for ensuring that our cafeteria and playground are safe. Kudos to Jorge Deleon and Nova Rodriguez for helping to assist me with a student who needed your support. Thank you to Cristina Hutton, Eugene Mosqueda and Joe Domingues for ensuring that our student's needs are met. Kudos to First Grade for hosting the first Movie Night.

PARENT CONFERENCES

Parent-teacher conferences offer great opportunities to deepen your working relationship with parents. As you highlight their child's strengths, discuss academic or social concerns, and share information about child development, parents come to see you as an advocate for their child's education. A little thinking and planning will help you make the most of these great opportunities.

A parent-teacher conference is a great opportunity to:

- ❑ share academic progress and growth based on Classroom observations, testing data, assessments, portfolios, and assignments
- ❑ learn from parents or guardians so you can be better informed about students' strengths, needs, behaviors, and learning styles
- ❑ discuss enrichment or intervention strategies to support students' learning
- ❑ discuss issues that may be interfering with students' learning

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"No one is perfect- that's why pencils have erasers."
-Wolfgang Riebe

CHARACTER WORD OF THE MONTH

Compassion

Caring for others with kindness.

REMINDERS

- Picture Retakes are on Monday, Nov. 9th
- This is the last week of NWEA Testing. If you make any changes to the schedule please let Angie or Susana know.
- Teachers as the holidays approach please remember to supply your own napkins, plates, cups and utensils in the event of a class party. The cafeteria is unable to provide you with these due to their restricted budget. Thank you.
- Library will be closed due to the Book Fair.
- Please remember to STAR Test and reset goals and points for Second Trimester.

HIGHLIGHTS/PBIS

In the Spotlight

PBIS Student's had a memorable Panther Fun Friday. Activities included "Steal the Pig," arts and crafts, bowling and face paint. Student's also got into the spirit by wearing their hair in a crazy fashion. It was a well-deserved day for students with good behavior to participate in.

Book Fair will take place in the Library. The gallery walk will take place on Monday for all grade levels. From Tuesday – Thursday, please send students with their money during your scheduled library time to purchase books. Book Fair hours are M-W 1:00-3:00, Thursday-1:00-5:00, and Friday 1:00-3:00.

Technology Survey

Please complete this survey via Survey Monkey. It is the best way for Annette to know what PD is wanted/needed and get an idea of the impact of our Districts technology.
