KUDOS

A BIG round of applause to Yesenia Lopez, Dr. Bailey and Alyssa Gonzales for collaborating and developing a lesson study with Chase Orten. Kudos to grades 3-6 for your perseverance when administering the Interim Assessments. Thank you to Maya Holland for ensuring that all accommodations were entered into the system. Kudos to Helen Esparza, Pilar Viveros and Priscilla Thomas for exposing the staff to fun and innovative games and learning tools. Thank you to Alicia Dominguez and Aurora Ortega for all your help with Science Camp. A HUGE thank you to Rosario Sandoval and Jaime Ceja for being the teacher representatives for our PTO.

COMMON CORE

Check out the following links that can be enhanced and make lessons innovating and exciting. Thank you to Helen Esparza, Pilar Viveros and Priscilla Thomas for sharing.

Focus of the Week:

Multiple Modalities

Multiple Modalities is an instructional practice used to improve student engagement. It involves providing diverse presentations and experiences of the content so that the students use different senses and different skills during a single lesson.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

If you want to be trusted, be honest. If you want to be honest be true. If you want to be true, be yourself.

-Unknown

CHARACTER WORD OF THE MONTH

Honesty

Being truthful in what you say and do.

PARENT CORNER

PTO

Our first PTO meeting was held on Thursday. Parents were informed on various topics such as PTO policies, Science Camp and upcoming events. PTO will hold a Valentine's Day Fundraiser on February 11th and a Rummage Sale on Saturday, February 27th.

ELL CORNER

CELDT results are in! The ELD instruction and action plans are proving to be successful, as 132 of our students have increased their CELDT scores by at least one level. Way to go team! Leveling students by their CELDT score and providing practice from suggested activities has helped us to get closer to our district goal in that all students will increase their score by at least one level.

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
