KUDOS

Kudos to Joe Domingues for his exceptional counseling. Thank you to Tina Miller and Janelle Read-Cap for all your hard work with the After School Program. Kudos to Eugene Mosqueda and all our Male Teachers for organizing our Super Bowl Treat Day-it was awesome. Kudos to our SDC Instructional Aides for your commitment and perseverance. A HUGE thank you to Maya Holland, Angie Amador and Susana Plascencia for ensuring that all CELDT information gets out to the parents.

COMMON CORE

Increasing the amount of time that students spend using academic language has been a priority for decades. (See Fisher, Frey, & Rothenberg, 2008.) Simply said, students need practice with academic language if they are to become proficient in that language: they must learn to speak the language of science, history, mathematics, art, literature, and technical subjects if they are to become thinkers in those disciplines.

PBIS/ REMINDERS

Continue to go over our P.A.W.S Expectations and our new school saying, "We are Pawsitive Panthers with a good Attitude Working hard to be Safe." Continue to go over and incorporate Honesty into your daily talk for the month of February and make sure that students can define and provide examples of what Honesty entails.

REMINDERS

3K race applications are due by Monday February 22nd. Money and applications can be turned into Ms. Cap or Mrs. Ceja. We have applied for bus grant but don't know if we have a bus yet.

PARENT CORNER

16 parents attended our Parent University. They discussed the criteria for students who have been reclassified this Spring Semester. 42 students in grades 3-6 are being reviewed for reclassification.
