KUDOS

A BIG thank you to our custodians, Maria Barrera, Ralph Chavez and Joey Morales for your hard work and dedication in order to get our school ready for Williams. A HUGE round of applause to Olga Mares for ensuring that all of our students have the necessary textbooks to learn. Kudos to ALL Teachers for making sure your rooms are in adequate order for the safety of our students. Thank you to the leadership Team for a productive meeting and for your fantastic ideas. Kudos to Nova Rodriguez for beatifying the staff lounge.

COMMON CORE

Building Knowledge Through Content-Rich Non-fiction

Content-rich non-fiction in elementary school is crucial for reading growth and achievement. Students need to be grounded in information about the world around them if they are to develop the strong general knowledge and vocabulary they need in order to become successful readers. Non-fiction plays an important part in building students' knowledge about content.

PBIS

Tuesday, I will be going over our 3 School-Wide Expectations during the kick off assembly. This will help to set the stage for the new school year in addition, help to clarify the roles and responsibilities for them. I will have students demonstrate what it means to be safe, respectful and responsible. I also will discuss the Paw Store, Fun Friday as well as the consequences students could face when an expectation is not met.

SCHOOL WIDE RULES

Be Safe
Be Respectful
Be Responsible

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“Yesterday is history. Tomorrow is a mystery.
Today is a gift. That’s why we call it
“The Present” -Eleanor Roosevelt

COMMUNITY/HIGHLIGHTS

Thank you to Lucy Jenson and her wonderful team of people who generously donate shoes and socks to our San Vicente Students. We appreciate the time you take out of your busy lives to ensure that our students here at San Vicente have proper fitting shoes.

Thank you to the entire Tech Team for working countless hours to ensure that our computers are connected and ready for use. Also, thank you to Fernando Nieto, for ordering our students brand new computer chairs for our lab. They look amazing.
